- This is wonderful! I look forward to receiving them and share them.
- Trying to get her asleep and stay asleep has been quite difficult lately. How can I help her sleep better so I can get some sleep! My patience is running low!
- Thank you for publishing this newsletter.
- I think the newsletter is very informative. Keep them coming and thank you.
- I'm an early child childhood teacher – I think this newsletter has great quick bits of information for parents-myself included!
- I greatly enjoy reading your newsletter. Mostly, it reinforces that I am doing what is needed for the development and well-being of my baby.
- Very informative – seemed to come at the time when I was questioning situations. Easy to read and comprehend – great tool for educating myself and my son.
- I like the newsletter! A lot of good free information and it comes just at the right time. Would like to see it continue as my child grows past the first year.
- I really enjoy getting this newsletter. I love reading all of the articles and I do save them for future references.
- I look forward to reading the newsletter every month. I find it very helpful. Those who don't take advantage of it are really missing out.
- The newsletter has really helped out knowing the different stages; what to expect in development.
- The newsletter is a nice resource – it's a quick read – not overwhelming and full of ads like magazines and internet. Very helpful when we had our first child.
- The newsletter really helped me ALOT. I got so much mixed advice from people it was nice to get information I could trust. I felt I could trust this info because it came through our medical center. Thank you so much!
- Thank you for the newsletter; it has been a blessing in disguise.
- Keep the articles going. Consider doing more of these after a year old.
- Keep them coming! They comfort mothers in knowing that they are doing the right thing.
- Thanks for doing this newsletter. I enjoy reading it and so does my husband.

Continued

- I enjoy getting the newsletter – not only for tips but a guide to see if my baby is progressing at the correct intervals.
- I feel the newsletter is very accurate in it's information. It is a lot of the same information I studied in school. For parents I would feel it is a very useful tool. Easy to read and understand.
- Keep up the good work – we look forward to this newsletter.
- I enjoy the newsletters!
- Thank you for caring for our children!
- Your newsletters are very helpful.
- Keep sending them to parents!
- Who knows what I would have done without all the advice! It was just nice to know what is “normal” and what to expect.”
- They have helped my husband understand the different stages of development and given me ideas on ways to help my baby grow.
- I never really talked to my baby while feeding her. But after the newsletters I do.
- I love receiving the newsletters. They are filled with great information that allowed me to feel more comfortable and confident as a mom.
- Keep sending these to mothers. I can see how they would be especially helpful/essential for less educated, single, young moms! Thank you!
