

Benefits of Crock Pot Cooking

- 1) The crock pot offers "all-day cooking without looking." Most meat and vegetable combinations can cook for 8 to 10 hours unattended.
- 2) Food doesn't overcook or burn if left longer than required. Food cooked slowly will be tenderer after prolonged cooking. Liquids do not boil away as in conventional methods of cooking.
- 3) One-step preparation is convenient. Simply put all ingredients in the crock and cook. Exception would be adding milk, cream or sour cream during the last hour.
- 4) Simmered foods taste better than boiled foods because more natural juices and flavors of food are retained. Keep the cover on.

Every time the lid is lifted, add 15-20 minutes to the overall cooking time.

- 5) The crock pot is economical to operate. Low wattage over an extended period costs less than high wattage for a short time.
- 6) A wide variety of foods can be prepared. Less tender cuts of meat cook with less shrinkage and therefore, are moist and tender.
- 7) Food is heated, but not the kitchen. Clean up is simple if the crock pot is stoneware and is removable.

Slow Cooker Tips

Ideally, the initial temperature of the crock pot should be as high as possible. In the case of meat, this can be done by browning the meat before cooking. Vegetables can be placed in a pot of boiling water for a few minutes before putting them in the crock pot.

You may pre-warm the crock pot by filling it with boiling water for a few minutes.

Recipes suggest putting vegetables in the pot first and the meat on top.

- Don't set a hot crock on a cold surface. Always place a hot pad or towel under it.
- To speed up the cooking time of most recipes, including soups and stews, follow the rule that 1 hour on High is equal to 2 hours on Low. (This is not recommended for cooking desserts.)
- Fat retains heat more readily than water, so fattier recipes will cook faster than those with less fat. Trim meats and brown them prior to putting them in the crock pot.
- Steam accumulates on the slow cooker's lid and the contents of the crockery tend to get watered down. Use thickeners such as flour, cornstarch and tomato paste to give texture to the dish.

Serving and Clean-up

- Use a slow cooker on a buffet table to keep soup or stew hot.
- Soak, then scrub off all cooked-on stains between uses. Abrasive cleanser is fine for this. Don't be tempted to leave food residue on the crock. It will cook off and become part of your next meal!

To reduce any bacterial risk while using a slow cook crock pot, follow these simple rules:

1. Keep raw ingredients refrigerated until they are to be put in the cooker.
2. Thaw frozen meat or poultry before cooking.
3. Cut vegetables in small pieces to ensure rapid heat transfer.
4. When cooking meat, the water or stock level should almost cover the meat to ensure effective heat transfer.
5. Do not overload the crock pot. Half full to three-fourths full is recommended for most crock pots.
6. Do not leave cooked food to cool down in the crock pot. Either consume it immediately or cool the food rapidly and refrigerate.
7. Never reheat leftovers in the crock pot. Reheat leftovers on the stove, in the oven or microwave.
8. Always follow the manufacturer's instructions.
