- Must be memorized.
- 15-minute maximum time limit.
- Minimal props and costumes.
- Can be performed in any room.

4-H Choral Reading Rating Sheet

- Group reading a story, poem, prose, etc.
- Can be done in unison or each member reading parts or both.
- 2 or more people. No props or costumes. 10-minute max.
- Does not need to be memorized.

4-H Storytelling Rating Sheet

- Memorization is encouraged.
- Minimal props/costumes.
- 10-minute time limit.

Act in a Sack (Extemporaneous Acting)

A team of two to four youth receive a sack of props for an act and have ten minutes to organize a 5 minute act or play.

The Act should have:

1. A situation and characters whose meanings are clear to the audience.
2. There must be a problem or conflict for the characters to solve (this is what makes a drama)
3. The characters must actively show, not tell, the events of the story.

Examples of situations:

1. Recently crimes have been taking place. Since you are detectives, how can you solve the mystery?
2. Orders have arrived from the President to a group of scientists to go explore a new island or creature, or planet. How can you prepare for the trip?
3. A group of travelers are all aboard an airplane bound for a foreign country. After some engine malfunctions they are forced to land. They discover they are in a country no one has ever know before. The inhabitants and their customs are very different from those in the U.S.
4. A school is closing and all students are to be bussed to another school on the other side of town. The students there seem to be quite different from those at the other school.
5. Create your own situation.
