Lower Wisconsin River

The Wisconsin River flows 430 miles across the state from Lac Vieux Desert in northern Wisconsin to its junction with the Mississippi River at Wyalusing State Park. The southern 92 miles of the river are attractive for family outings as there are no dams to portage.

Mississippi River

The Mississippi River is not a traditional canoeing river because of its commercial traffic, sometimes unpredictable currents, and high power boat usage. It does provide ample power boat opportunities along with area hiking and outdoor recreation.
