BRING IT BACK REPORTS

Hello, my name is Riley Berning and I am from Rockwell Mills 4-H Club. Recently, I was part of the Citizenship Washington Focus trip and it was a great experience. We went to lot of memorials such as the Lincoln Memorial and the Martin Luther King Jr. memorial. We also went to Mt. Vernon and the Gettysburg Battlefield. We toured the capital building and met Senator Baldwin and Senator Johnson. They both talked to us and we got the opportunity to ask Senator Baldwin some questions. I met a lot of people from different parts of Wisconsin and from other states such as Alaska, Arkansas, New Jersey, and Virginia. It was a great experience and I would recommend this trip to younger 4-H Members.

CLOVERBUD CORNER: “Creative Play = Learning”

Ask the children to close their eyes and imagine that today we are visiting a farm. What kind of animal would you be? Where would you live? What would you eat? Who are your friends on the farm? Share your ideas about a farm with others. Now use boxes, paint, crayons, sand, hay, water, or play animals to make a farm with the rest of the Cloverbuds. You can also pretend you are animals on the farm and have one person be the farmer. Sing farm songs like Old MacDonald and enjoy your farm.
