

THE “STEADY EDDY” LEGENDS AWARD

This award is to recognize all those horses and ponies who, like Fifth Edition++// have been there for kids, taking them all the way from the 4-H level, all the way through their breed regional or national levels.

This award is given in remembrance of the National Champion Arabian gelding Fifth Edition++//, who not only was a nationally and regionally recognized winner on the Arabian circuit but also taught and carried many youth through local, 4-H and State 4-H shows. Fifth Edition++// was a versatile horse showing in all three of the major disciplines of western, hunt seat and saddle seat pleasure and equitation.. He tolerated showmanship and halter and participated in drill team and exhibitions.

This award may be given to as many horses each year that qualify for this award. The horse does not need to be present to win, may be deceased and it may be awarded once to any individual horse, taking as many years as needed to accumulate points to win. Any past or present owner of a horse may apply for this award. Each recipient will receive a plaque that Fifth Edition++// originally won and engraved with the winner's name and the owner making the application. The winner's name and his owner will have their names engraved on a trophy that the winner may keep until another horse wins this award. Each horse must have had at least five different 4-H youth show them and at least one of the youth was a horseless horse person for at least one year and has exhibited at the Sheboygan County Fair. Each horse must have participated in drill team, Wisconsin State Horse Expo or other exhibitions at least five different events or years. Awards will be presented at the Sheboygan County Fair. Deadline for applying is August 1st each year.
