

The University of Wisconsin-Extension Educators are the representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture, the University of Wisconsin, and the Public Works Committee of the Washington County Board of Supervisors.

Serving Washington County residents since 1918, they design educational programs which apply research, knowledge, and resources to meet the issues and needs of County residents.

They take pride in being engaged throughout Washington County in responding to local needs and concerns, bringing the knowledge and resources of the University of Wisconsin to residents where they need them most – where they live and work.
