
2017 WOOD COUNTY CLOTHING REVUE

Monday, June 19, 2017
Jo-Ann Fabric & Crafts; Marshfield, WI
3:00 p.m.

All judging is face-to-face and is based on the exhibitor's choice of pattern, fabric and accessories to enhance his/her personal body type and meet the needs of the wearer. A short educational talk and tour of the new Jo-Ann Fabrics store will be included. Individuals who exhibit clothing at the Revue will need to participate in the Style Show at the Central WI State Fair on September 4th.

Rules:

Clothing Revue is open to those enrolled in a clothing project. Younger Members (grades K-3) are also eligible to participate.

1. Youth are allowed to enter one class and lot. They may also enter Class G, lot 1 or 2.
2. Two participants and one alternate will be selected to go to State Fair (you must be 14 or older as of January 1 of the current year). Those selected for State Fair Clothing Revue will be asked to stay after the program to learn more about State Fair.
3. Premiums will be paid for all classes. To receive your premium, you must model your Revue garment(s) at the fair.
4. Cloverbud (grades K-2) entries are for participation ribbon only. Cloverbuds are allowed to make one of the following: simple skirt, pants, shorts, capris, or shirt. All younger members will be judged together.
5. Explorers (grade 3) will receive a placed ribbon. This does not count as one of their 6 projects for the fair. Explorers are allowed to make one of the following: simple skirt, pants, shorts, capris, top, shirt, vest, dress, jumper or sleepwear.

Registration is due June 9th and should be completed through 4honline.com
